

VICTORIA ROONEY

Actress | Singer | Dancer

About Me

Hi, I'm Victoria! Although I look younger, I am over 18 years old and a Professional Actress, Singer, and Dancer.

I am a recent graduate of Pace University, where I was Valedictorian. While at Pace, I studied all aspects of the Entertainment Industry, from Casting to Public Relations. I started dancing at the young age of one and a half. Over the years, I have worked with the industries finest studying on-camera, theater, dance, and voice. I landed a lead role performing in my first Off- Broadway show at just 13 years old. Recently, I won a Best Acting Award for my performance in the short film, Trepidation, and worked alongside Nicole Kidman on a new limited series. In my spare time, I love to read new scripts, choreograph, create makeup/fashion looks, volunteer, and spend time with family!
